

Good Afternoon Brooklyn Arts Community,

Hope your day is going well. Just a couple of quick reminders with Parent teachers Conferences coming Thursday evening and Friday Afternoon.

- Parents can sign up for a conference on Calendly. Teachers sent invites, but you can also find the links here. Please email the teacher directly if you are unable to get a spot, or would like to schedule for another time (teachers have weekly outreach time available).
- All grades should be up to date in the NYCPS Gradebook. While many teachers also use google Classroom, The DOE system is the mandated gradebook. Students can access through TeachHub. Parents can access through their NYCSA account. Please contact teachers and/or Assistant Principals if grades are not visible for a specific class.
- Students will be released Friday at 12:09. We will have our regular schedule (periods 1-6). Students with 7th period lunch can go to the cafeteria at 12:09 and grab food as well.

Thank you to our teachers for their tireless work in supporting students. Thank you to our students for their diligence and general awesomeness. Thank you to parents for your incredible engagement and support.

Have a great day.

-Best
