

Good Afternoon Brooklyn Arts Families,

Hope all is well. Thank you for an amazing kickoff to the school year.

Just a quick status update on accessing student grades and communicating with teachers:

- FAMILIES: If you have not done so, please be sure you have filled out the EMERGENCY CONTACT FORM immediately. We need your information to ensure proper communication
- Until the DOE system (GAMA) becomes viable we will move to a 100% Google Classroom model
  - All teachers have been asked to open the gradebook option to make grades and average visible on their Classroom Page. Students should be able to see their grades in each Google Class by tomorrow.
  - Next week, all teachers will be asked to invite guardians to join the class and enable "guardian summaries" which will allow regular updates about classroom activities.
  - Students and Parents can access a teacher's email address through Google Classroom or our Staff Directory Page. Teachers have access to all available parent contact information.

We will update you if/when the DOE grading system (GAMA) is fully functional. Parents should still sign up to access their accounts as there are other important resources available there. Contact your Guidance Counselor or email juan.sanchez@brooklynartshs.nyc for assistance.

Guidance Counselors:
